SERENADE FOR CHRISTMAS

Short Biography

Serenade for Christmas is a refined concert project presenting beloved Christmas songs with a unique blend of classical, jazz, and popular traditions. The ensemble features Dasha Mykolenko (Ukrainian opera singer with the Grand Théâtre de Genève), Alberto Santamaria (Italian jazz guitarist and producer based in Bern), and Daria Pittet (Swiss flutist active with orchestras and chamber ensembles in Geneva and Bern). Together, they offer an elegant and versatile program, ideal for festive and distinguished holiday events.

Repertoire

Our program brings together the timeless beauty of classical masterpieces, the charm and warmth of jazzy holiday favorites, and the universal appeal of popular Christmas standards. Carefully curated for elegant hotel settings, festive dinners, and exclusive events, this repertoire creates an atmosphere that is both refined and joyful — perfect for celebrating the magic of Christmas.
